

2018 Thesis Prizes in Middle Eastern Studies

The Amsterdam Centre for Middle Eastern Studies Amsterdam (ACMES) intends to award two prizes for Best BA thesis (€ 150 in book vouchers) and Best MA thesis (€ 250 in book vouchers) in Middle Eastern Studies for work completed at the UvA during the academic year 2017/18.

Eligibility:

- Applicants must have been registered (full or part-time) students at the UvA for the academic year 2017/18;
- Submissions should focus on the Middle East or subjects related to the peoples/cultures/religions/societies of the Middle East;
- Submissions can be made in either English or Dutch;
- Thesis must have been successfully submitted in the academic year 2017/18;
- Thesis should have received a grade of 8 or more.

Applicants must submit their thesis (pdf format) by email to: f.boussaid@uva.nl, with a certification of timely submission from the studentenbalie. Submissions should be accompanied by the supervisor's evaluation and arrive no later than Friday 5th October 2018, 18:00. For further details please contact: The director of ACMES, Farid Boussaid, (f.boussaid@uva.nl).

The ACMES Steering Board will appoint a jury that selects the best MA and BA thesis. The jury will be selected based on the fields for which the theses have been written.

Prizes will be formally awarded at the Centre's thesis award meeting on the 13th of December 2018.